

myhosting.com® announces the availability of Microsoft® FrontPage® 2002 and Microsoft SharePoint™ Team Services

Toronto--(BUSINESS WIRE)---June 5, 2001

In conjunction with the release of Microsoft FrontPage 2002 with Microsoft SharePoint Team Services, myhosting.com today is pleased to announce the availability of these services to all of their hosting customers.

FrontPage 2002 customers can immediately take advantage of the rich and seamless functionality of this newly released web development tool when they host their website with myhosting.com. Additionally, customers interested in a fully collaborative web-based environment can opt to sign-up for Microsoft's SharePoint Team Services also available from myhosting.com starting from US $39.95 per month. Now, an entire team can work collaboratively on Microsoft Word®, Microsoft Excel® and even Microsoft PowerPoint® documents via a web-browser and intuitively track all related changes.

"myhosting.com is very excited to be closely involved with Microsoft, especially as they launch their new hosted application platforms," says Tony Yustein, CEO of SoftCom Technology Consulting Inc. "Our relationship with partners like Microsoft provides us with the ability to continue to offer higher valued services and applications to our rapidly growing international customer base."

"Working with a partner like myhosting.com offered Microsoft Canada peace of mind with a fast, reliable and first rate hosting solution," said Jordan Chrysafidis, Group Manager, Microsoft Canada. "We took advantage of myhosting.com's SharePoint Team Services hosted offering to provide online access to our Office XP media kit, ensuring media across the country had all the information they needed."
