Microsoft Partner Network selects SoftCom as Hosting Partner of the Year

Toronto, November 15, 2012 --- SoftCom Inc. has been selected as the winner in the Hosting Partner of the Year category of the 2012 Microsoft Partner Network IMPACT Awards.

This is the second year in a row that SoftCom was nominated by the Microsoft Canada initiative that identifies excellence within the Canadian Microsoft technology partner community, and the first year SoftCom has won.

"SoftCom has been dedicated to hosting innovation since its inception 15 years ago," said Turker Sokullu, Chief Executive Officer & Co-founder of SoftCom. "This award is a source of tremendous pride, as it validates the commitment of our employees, the caliber of our partnership and speaks to the benefit we offer our customers."

The Hosting Partner of the Year Award recognizes a Microsoft partner who demonstrates solution innovation and exemplary commitment to engaging with Microsoft. Over the past year, SoftCom took part in the technology adoption program (TAP) for Microsoft System Centre 2012 SP1 and the rapid deployment program (RDP) for Windows Server 2012, propelling the company to be one of the first Microsoft partners in North America to launch the new product into the market.

"This is a very prestigious award in our industry," said Celal Ulgen, Chief Marketing Officer at SoftCom. "There are many hosting companies in Canada and receiving this award is an honour."

For 15 years, SoftCom has built a reputation globally as the go-to host for small to medium size businesses offering a wide variety of cutting edge Microsoft hosting products and cloud services based on Windows Server 2012 with Hyper-V.
